

Innovation in Global Theology & Ministry: Sample English-Language Websites and Working Bibliography

Dennis Cheek, founding Director and Professor of Innovation in Global Theology and Ministry, Center for Innovation in Global Theology and Ministry, Northwind Theological Seminary

3 February 2021

This list of websites and working bibliography of over 2,500 books in the English language was prepared for prospective students considering enrolling in the graduate programs of the Center for Innovation in Global Theology and Ministry (CIGTM) at Northwind Theological Seminary. It gives a sense of the many issues, themes, and topics that might inform future innovations in global theology and ministry. Most books were published in the last 5-10 years across a wide array of disciplines and perspectives. A variety of publishers is represented. The hard work of innovation comes in diligently seeking to understand strengths and weaknesses of current approaches and efforts; looking far and wide for models, ideas, and approaches that might be adopted, adapted, avoided, activated and expanded in relation to Christian theology and/or ministry within a global framework.
